

Dear Chelas,

Liberia ECK Regional Seminar
Postponement to January 29 – 31, 2021

Conscious of the potential danger that a large public gathering poses to its participants in this period of Coronavirus crisis, the ECKANKAR Spiritual Center (ESC) has issued a directive cancelling all ECK events worldwide until May 31, 2020.

It is in this spirit of public safety and in compliance with the ESC Directive that the 2020 ECK Regional Seminar in Liberia, originally scheduled for 27 – 29 March, 2019, has been postponed to 29 – 31 January, 2021.

The effort made by all chelas and seekers of truth to participate in that Liberia regional seminar is much appreciated, and it is expected that all those who pre-registered or were making plans to attend it would re-arrange their plans to be able to attend the seminar when it comes on at the end of January 2021.

The Seminar Organizing Committee, on its part, has initiated moves to make the shift in dates as least disruptive as possible. This includes engaging the hotels in Monrovia to agree to shift the reservations to the last weekend of January, and negotiate with the travel agents involved on the best terms for re-booking flights in January 2021. The outcome of these negotiations will be communicated to the chelas concerned without delay.

Chelas affected by this change of dates may wish to consider the following possible options:

- a. Pre-registration Donation: decide to donate it to ECKANKAR Liberia; request to have it held as your pre-registration donation for the January 2021 seminar in Monrovia; or request for a refund in full or partially;
- b. Deposit for Hotel Room Reservation: request to have it held against your room reservation for the January 2021 seminar; or request for a refund (contact Francis Honyah on 0245 025 332 or 0204 480 130); and
- c. Flight ticket: re-negotiate with your travel agent or the airline (in cases of direct purchase) the best terms for extension of validity of ticket expiry date.

This letter is to invite all chelas concerned to interact quickly with the relevant Seminar Organizing team members to ensure that these different issues are settled satisfactorily, and without delay.
