Guest Speaker

Nana Adomako-Ansa is a member of the ECKANKAR Clergy, a Traditional Ruler, a retired Educationist, and an Administrator. He joined ECKANKAR in 1978 and is a founding member of ECKANKAR in Kumasi and Sunyani. He served as the Kumasi Local Area Director.

Nana enjoys attending ECK regional and African Soul Adventure Seminars, regularly giving talks, and facilitating workshops and roundtables. He is a dedicated ECK cleric, diligently performing his duties as the officiator of ECK Light and Sound Services, and an excellent trainer who leads ECK training programmes. He is skillful at facilitating ECK Satsang and book discussion classes, thanks to his professional background as a trained teacher with a degree in education (he taught in primary and secondary schools, and then in a teacher-training college).

He took on an appointment as Assistant Registrar at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, Kumasi, in 1982. His Master's degree (from the University of Manchester, UK) and dedication to duty enabled him to serve there creditably for 15 years and retired as the Deputy Registrar.

Nana was installed in 1996 as Chief of Ankaase and Kontihene of Amofo Paramountcy (2nd in Command). He is married and the couple has four adult ladies and a gentleman. Nana enjoys gardening and listening to traditional African music.
